71% of Americans agree that to ensure low income children are successful, we have to also invest in their parents’ economic well-being, and 52% believe that programs are most effective at moving families out of poverty if they are targeted to parents and children together to help each get the education and training they need.10

PROVIDERS

Total Number of Grantees/Delegates: 43
- Early Head Start: 18
- Head Start: 25
- American Indian/Alaska Native Head Start: 0
- American Indian/Alaska Native Early Head Start: 0
- Migrant/Seasonal Head Start: 0

ACCESS

Number of Children in Poverty Ages 0-5: 113,000
Total Funded Enrollment: 16,469
- Early Head Start: 2,430
- Head Start: 14,039
- American Indian/Alaska Native Head Start: 0
- American Indian/Alaska Native Early Head Start: 0
- Migrant/Seasonal Head Start: 0

Homeless Children Served: 1,082
Children with Disabilities Served: 2,328
Pregnant Women Served: 460
Families Receiving Family Services: 4,605
*Family services include mental health care, dental health care, housing assistance, parenting education, smoking cessation, job education and more.

Research on Head Start has shown that participating families are more likely to invest time in literacy activities with their children, both while enrolled and years after their children graduate from the program.5

QUALITY

Head Start and Early Head Start programs engage in continuous quality improvement efforts. Among other notable accomplishments, the national percentage of Head Start teachers with Bachelors degrees has increased from 38% to 66% since 2007.

Percent of Head Start Teachers with BA or Advanced Degrees: 61%

Over Head Start children’s lives they are less likely to need special education services or engage in unhealthy behaviors and are more likely to achieve success in school and in life.

ECONOMIC IMPACT

Fiscal Year 2014 Enacted Funding: 140,761,622
Fiscal Year 2015 Estimated Funding: $142,873,046
*Enrollment information for the 2014-2015 school year will be collected and available by Fall 2015

Total Jobs: 4,408
State Average Salary for Head Start Teachers with a BA: $27,681
State Average Salary for Early Head Start Teachers with a Child Development Associate Credential: $22,470

The Head Start investment pays off: for each $1 invested, Head Start yields an annual ROI ranging from 7-9%.6

SEQUESTRATION

Funding Cut Due to Sequestration: $7,323,465
Children Unserved Due to Sequestration: 1,062
Jobs Lost Due to Sequestration: 126

71% of
Americans agree that to ensure low income children are successful, we have to also invest in their parents’ economic well-being, and 52% believe that programs are most effective at moving families out of poverty if they are targeted to parents and children together to help each get the education and training they need.10

Head Start is the original two-generation model, and over the past fifty years comprehensive health, education, and self-sufficiency supports for children and their parents have helped thirty-two million families achieve success in school and in life.
STATE CONTEXT

EARLY HEAD START-CHILD CARE PARTNERSHIPS
- Estimated new funding for EHS Expansion and EHS-CC Partnerships\(^1\): $2,900,000
- Projected children served\(^4\): 232

INFANT AND TODDLER CARE
- Children birth to 3 in Poverty\(^3\): 56,230
- Federally-Funded Early Head Start Slots\(^4\): 1913
- State-Funded Early Head Start Slots\(^4\): 316
- State Average Annual Cost of Center-Based Infant Care\(^5\): $8,736
- Children birth to 3 Receiving Child Care Subsidies\(^7\): 10,680
- National Average Annual Subsidy for Children birth to 3\(^7\): $5,568

EARLY HEAD START HOME VISITING
- Office of Head Start-Funded Slots\(^13\): 703
- Maternal, Infant, and Early Childhood Home Visiting (MIECHV) Funded Slots\(^4\): 201

PRESCHOOL AND PRE-K
- Children 3 and 4 in Poverty\(^3\): 37,979
- Federally-Funded Head Start Slots\(^4\): 14,019
- State-Funded Head Start Slots\(^4\): 20
- State-Funded Pre-K Slots\(^4\): 3,675

Endnotes

11. Data provided by the Administration for Children and Families and the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services.